The Acrine Colonial Secretary—By order of His Excellency the Governor I have to lay on the table a despatch from the Secretary of state respecting the submission in future of the menicipal taxation to the Legislative Council.

THE MUNICIPAL RATES ORDINANCE. HIS EXCELLENCY—The order of the day is to resume consideration in Committee of the Bill entitled the Municipal Rates Ordinance, 1885. at our last meeting sections 26 and 27 in the amendments might be proposed providing for a refund of rates in the case of unoccupied houses at Victoria Peak. I have now to rivers, and thus furnish a demand for much iron propose an amended section instead of that which now stands printed as 26. There will also be an amended section in place of that which now stands as 27, but that is a mere matter of form and raises no question of principle. The amended section 26 is as follows: Whenever any tenement not being a tenement at Victoria Peak is unoccupied during one or more entire months of any quarter in respect of which the rates upon such tenoment were paid in advance, the Treasurer shall refund the rates for such months. (2)—When any tenement at Victoria Peak shall, in may year, be continuously unoccupied from July to December inclusive, the owner shall be entitled to a refund of the rates paid during such period on account of such tenement, and for each succooling entire quarter during which such tenement shall be continuously procespied he shall be entitled to a like refund. THE ELECTION CAMPAIGN IN ENGLAND

LONDON, 1st November. Gladatona has written a highly important letter on church disestablishment. He taunts the Tories with thrusting the question forward as a political dodge. He repeats that the project belongs to the dim, distant future, and that the public mind is not prepared for the scheme. In conclusion he says: "The subject is for others and not for me to deal with."

LONDON, 1st November. . The Archbishops of Canterbury and York have issued an address to the English electors. They say the men chosen in the coming election will be likely to govern the empire for a number years. The Archbishops considered the Church question of the highest importance. The address, though compulsory in tone, avoids direct party discussions. It is regarded as a thrust at the Radicals.

LONDON, 3rd November. THE ELIZA ARMSTRONG ABDUCTION CASE.

LONDON. 7th November. The trial of Stead and other defendants in the Armstrong abduction case was resumed to day before Justice Lopes. The Judge in his charge to the jury urged that they should bring in a verdict according to law and not allow personal sympathies to influence their decision. Mr. Stead, Justice Lopes said, filled the Pall Mall Gazette with filthy, disgusting articles of an obscene nature, the publication of which was not connected with the present charge. The only material question for the jury to decide was whether the child, Eliza Armstrong, was taken away from home against her father's will. They were also to determine whether the mother sold her child to prisoners as alleged by defendants. The jury retired at 3.40 p.m. The foreman asked the Judge before the jury left their seats to allow them to distinguish between Mrs. Jar. rett and Mr. Stead as to their criminal liability in esse the jury concluded that Mrs. Jarrett had disobeyed the instructions of Mr. Stead. The jury returned to the Court-room at 6.40 o'clock with their verdict. They agreed that Stead and Mrs. Jarrett took Eliza Armstrong from her home against her father's will, but could not agree as to whether Mrs. Jarrett obtained the child by false pretences. They also agreed that the mother did not sell her shild as alleged by defence, and that Booth and Jacques were not parties to the abduction. The Judge deferred

POST-OFFICE NOTICES.

When Correspondence has been missent or delayed (both of which are liable to happen occasionally) all that the addressee need do is to note on the cover. Sent to ---- or Received at 7 p.m., or as the case may be, and forward it. without any other writing whatever, to the Postmaster-General. This should be acted on the first time cause of complaint occurs; it is a mistake to let such matters pass for fear of giving trouble, a course which generally gives more trouble in the end.
